

ESSAY + POSTER COMPETITION

- 17th February 2018

The event ESSAY WRITING and POSTER PRESENTATION competition was organised by LEXIANS on 17th February, 2018 in CMR Technical Campus. It was held on a prudent topic, "WOMEN-CREATING, LEADING, DOING" as International Women's Day was round the corner.

ESSAY WRITING helps to enhance one's own ideas, upgrade time management and linguistic skills, expeditious writing can also be developed. POSTER PRESENTATION promotes creative thinking, expressive nature and artistic skill. Participation in such type of activities develops sportive nature, provides awareness about the respective topic, allows to explicit one's ideas and acts as the stepping stone for competence.

93 students participated and everyone came up with their innovative approach, thinking in peculiar ways. They were given one hour time to express their views in the form of an essay or by presenting a poster and the event was wound up successfully with the co-operation of students, faculty and lexians.
