

Workshop on Model United Nations

- 27th March 2018

"Diplomacy is the art of letting someone have your way."

On 27th March 2018, Tuesday, a workshop on Model United Nations was conducted for the lexians. The workshop was an enthralling experience. The workshop touched the topics of function and working of the United Nations, organising MUN, debating, moderated and unmoderated caucus, and training the student delegates to perform. It gave a wonderful insight to the student delegates to MUN and an unfathomable knowledge on how to prepare, research and organise such an event.

The workshop was attended by around 43 delegates. the resource persons for the event were Mr Himanshu Kalpani and Mr. Ramal Jagan from The International Thematic Conference 2K18 (TITC-2K18). The event started at 9:45AM in the seminar hall and ended at 3:00 PM.
