FEEDBACK

The hospitality in the college was way to good and the OC's very flexible with the delegates with respect to what ever decision they made. The time management regarding the committee session on the first day of MUN was not accurate but was later covered on the second day . Few people were beginners and most of the delegates had some experience regarding the MUN . As i was AIPPM (All India Political Party Meet) on the very first session it was regorous and intense . None of the other delegates nor the EB had cross their limits. every delegate stood up to there respective shoes. The socials was very awesome which made the MUN experience for the beginners and me preety interesting.

- Krishna (1st year CSM)

NGIT mun although it was just their 2nd time having in their college for a total of 300rs (200 extra for food) the hospitality and organizing was totally worth it.

The sessions were good and interactive too, not were the EB members biased and SOCIALS for both the days was the best part of all..

Overall a worthy time spent respectively
