

EVENT REPORT ON CLUB ORIENTATION 2K23

Date of the event Held: 28/01/2023

Organizer: CODEHOLICS CLUB

Venue/Place: AUDITORIUM, CMR Technical Technical Campus

Number of students Participants (students and Staff): 736

Description about the Event:

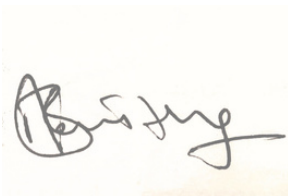

The Codeholics Club Orientation was a dynamic and insightful event, featuring engaging sessions led by Ibrahim, Astha Sharma, and Sourabh on coding challenges, career-driven opportunities, and placement talks, respectively. Ibrahim's interactive quizzes sparked curiosity, while Astha provided practical advice on navigating the tech industry. Sourabh empowered attendees with strategies for excelling in interviews. Vamshi infused entertainment throughout, fostering camaraderie among participants.

The presence of esteemed faculty advisors, Prabhu Sir and Kavita Rani Mam, underscored the club's commitment to student success. Overall, the event provided a comprehensive introduction to coding and tech careers, leaving attendees inspired and equipped for their coding journey.

Outcome of the event :

The Codeoholics Club Orientation left attendees feeling inspired and empowered, with newfound knowledge and confidence in their coding journey. Ibrahim's engaging session ignited a passion for coding, while Astha Sharma's insights provided valuable guidance on career paths in the tech industry. Sourabh's presentation equipped participants with practical strategies for succeeding in job interviews. Vamshi's entertainment added a fun element, fostering connections among attendees. The presence of faculty advisors, Prabhu Sir and Kavita Rani Mam, reassured participants of ongoing support. Overall, the event was a catalyst for personal and professional growth, leaving participants energized and ready to pursue their goals in the tech world. confidence gained from the bootcamp, participants felt empowered to tackle coding challenges head-on and pursue their goals with renewed determination.

Signature of faculty Coordinator

Signature of Head