

EVENT REPORT ON – WOMEN'S DAY

Date of the event Held: 08.03.2024

Organizer: NCC

Venue/Place: Rashtrapati Nilayam

Number of students Participants ( students and Staff): 05

Description about the Event: As the evening descended upon Rashtrapati Nilayam, it became a stage for the celebration of womanhood in its most resplendent form. Classical notes danced through the air, weaving tales of tradition and heritage, while the graceful movements of dancers painted stories of strength and grace. In the midst of it all stood the NCC cadets, embodying the essence of discipline and patriotism, their presence a testament to the future leaders of our nation. Amidst the sea of cultural splendor, Brigadier Nikkat Jahaan's arrival was like a beacon of hope and inspiration, her uniform adorned with medals of valor and determination. Her presence elevated the occasion, reminding everyone of the relentless spirit that defines womanhood. Together, under the canopy of stars, they celebrated not just a day, but a journey—one of resilience, triumph, and the unyielding pursuit of equality.

Outcome of the event: The Women's Day celebration at Rashtrapati Nilayam left a profound impact, uniting attendees through cultural performances and inspiring speeches. Brigadier Nikkat Jahaan's presence highlighted the resilience of women, sparking a renewed commitment to empowerment and equality. The event served as a catalyst for positive change, fostering a sense of pride and determination among all who participated.
